Laurentian University is located on the traditional lands of the Atikameksheng Anishnawbek, in proximity to the WahnapitaeFirst Nation, within the territory of the Robins&huron Treaty of 1850 in Sudbury, Ontario. Laurentianserves over 7500 students and is one of two bilingual universities in the province of Ontario Committed to its bilingual and toultural mandate, Larentian University offersnaexperience in English and French with a comprehensive approach to Indigenous education. Laurentian's beautiful, forested campus surrounded by frestwater lakes, conservation lands and hundreds of kilresnef crosscountry and hiking trails while situated in the geographic centre Greater Sudbury, northern Ontario's major urban reent (population 170,000). Laurentian University has close and productive ties to Science North, the Sudbu Neutrino Observatory Lab (SNOLAB),&alth Sciences North, and multiple poetondary institutions.

Laurentian is committed to cultivating a diverse, inclusive and vibrant academic work environment focusing of

- Excellent communication skills and the capacity to operate in both French and English.
- A Ph.D. in a relevant discipline with a record of research and scholarship.

Application Requirements

A complete application includes the following:

A cover letter describing briefly why the appointment is of interest to you and why you believe you are well-suited for this role. Also include one of the two statements about citizenship/resident statu specified below.

An up-to-date Curriculum Vitae detailing academic and professional qualifications and relevant achievements.